Executive Summary

The Human Rights Youth Organization (HRYO) had a successful year promoting human rights awareness and advocating for the protection of the rights of all individuals, especially the youth.

HRYO has advocated for those affected by human rights violations, and raised awareness of the need for action to address human rights violations in various contexts.

Throughout the year, HRYO has been engaged in various activities aimed at serving humanity, promoting awareness of human rights and advocating for their protection. These activities include organizing seminars, training sessions and workshops on human rights issues, humanitarian aid in floods and other natural disasters, advocacy campaigns on various human rights issues, and partnerships with organizations, institutions.

In the coming year, HRYO will continue to build on its successes and expand its reach in promoting and advocating for the protection of human rights. The organization is committed to promoting the rights of all people, and working for a world where human rights are respected and protected for all.

Message of President

Tanveer QaimKhani

As we published annual report of the Human Rights Youth Organization of year 2022, I am proud to say that our organization has made significant contributions to the promotion and protection of human rights for all. Progress has been made. Despite the challenges posed by the flood situation, we remain steadfast in our commitment to carry forward our mission and act as a powerful voice on activism and human rights violations.

Throughout the year, we have focused on several key areas, advocating for social justice, promoting gender equality, and raising awareness of human rights abuses the world including Pakistan. We worked to raise the voice of the marginalized and empower the youth to work in their communities.

the future, we recognize that there is still a lot of work to be done. We are committed to advocating for these essential human rights. We continue to collaborate with our partners for our impact and positive change.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our people, supporters and partners for their unwavering dedication and commitment to our mission. Your support is critical to our success, and we continue to work together as equals.
